

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XIX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1891.

NO. 45

HUSTONVILLE.

—Will Dunn had a collar bone broken and his brother "Bud" a hand painfully crushed by a refractory team of mules last week.

—John Ellis and Steve Drye suspended Uncle Sam's business in Anderson and Lincoln to fill their allotted places on election day.

—A couple of Casey county gardeners, whose vegetables are not protected by picket fences, adopted the novel plan of staking out a wing-tipped hawk and owl as most complete protection against the ravages of fowls.

—A telegram calling Dr. Brown to Jimmie Craig's bedside at Louisville, last week, excited grave apprehensions as to his condition, but a later dispatch revoked the call and stated that he and wife would probably be home in a short time.

—W. W. Penn, the energetic railroad man, was here last Friday night and the general impression is that there will either soon be an army of emigrants from this end, or an excursion to Yosemite or Yellowstone, which will temporarily depopulate the county.

—Ed Owens got in from Chattanooga Saturday. Messrs. J. P. Rife, G. C. Cowan and T. L. Carpenter, after giving the new constitution a left hander at the polls, repaired to Dripping Springs to ascertain how long the Garrard county foxes can load a pack of Lincoln county thoroughbreds.

—Judge Camnitz is able to leave his couch after nearly three weeks' prostration. Some of the judge's admirers think his attack the result of exhaustive research he erroneously thought essential to a correct decision of abstract legal matters, but his physicians refer his ailments to the ordinary run of human frailties.

—Dr. Ed. Alcorn, of this place, a sprightly member of the Advocate's staff, has gone a fashionable watering place in the interest of his paper and to alleviate a cardiac ailment. He stopped over night en route from Louisville where he had spent a few hours in the hands of a specialist who mitigated the sufferer's pharyngeal malady. The doctor's very large circle of friends and admirers hope to soon welcome him more fully recovered from his slight functional disturbance.

—Esquire L. B. Adams has finally struck a strong stream of water, but isn't satisfied. The sulphurous flavor savors too suggestively of plume proximity, and doesn't mix palatably in the culinary department, whilst the saline properties are creative of insatiable thirst. In fact a fresh egg floated buoyantly on the first specimens of the strike and the question was, "Shall a shaft be sunk and rock salt mined, or evaporators established, and a new salt refinery put in immediate operation?"

—Ed Powell, a young bachelor farmer near town, spread a banquet before a select few of his young lady and gentlemen friends last Saturday, which will long be an epoch from which momentous events will be dated. Mrs. Kate Powell and her accomplished daughters assumed control of domestic and culinary departments on the occasion and the host accredits his aunt and cousins with the gratifying success of his first essay. It is a mystery to all Ed's acquaintances that his establishment is without a beautiful little hostess.

—The picnic at Sycamore Grove was largely attended last Saturday in spite of the unpromising forenoon, and was prematurely adjourned by the early afternoon rainfall, which took the starch out of many an artistically laundried wardrobe, and probably averted a disagreeable termination of the festivities, as a supply of benzine was found in the surrounding bushes and several quarrelsome individuals had loaded and were avowedly in search of conquests. The rain was a Godsend in more than one sense.

—Mrs. Wallace Steele, Misses Billie and Lou Alstott, chaperoned by Mr. George Hinn, are making a tour of the East. Capt. Joe Hoffman, of Liberty, was a welcome visitor last week. Miss Mack Logan has gone to Longview, Ala., to spend a month. Misses Lizzie Drye and Lou Hocker have returned from Cumberland Falls. The season has, up to now, been one of unusual gaiety at that resort, and every visitor is extravagant in praise of the present management. Waxie's Band contributes immensely to the delightful surroundings by charming concerts.

HARD TIMES.—Pinder—"Didn't that man call you a liar?" Fitzgibbon—"He did." Pinder—"And you propose to take it?" Fitz—"Certainly, times are so hard now that a man will take anything."—Southern Life.

Bobby—"Look a-here, Uncle George; English ain't no dead language, be it?" Uncle George—"Not yet, Bobby, but if you had the exclusive handling of it, it soon would be."—Boston Courier.

—George James shot Armstead Baker at the Proctor Mines with a Winchester over a game of craps and escaped.

HON. D. B. EDMISTON.

Lincoln County's Popular Young Representative.

BARBOURVILLE, KNOX COUNTY.

—Some of our neighboring county papers are glad to notice have let up to some extent on the constitutional discussion, and especially the pro constitutional sheets.

—A gentleman by the name of Ketching, who registers from Memphis, Tenn., delivered quite an interesting lecture at the Christian church here last Friday night. His subject was "China."

—Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Steeley, the couple who were recently married, and on account of which appeared in these letters some two weeks ago, have returned from a pleasant tour of some of the Southern cities.

—We are sorry to note that Major E. W. Freeman, editor of the News, of this city, has to spend so much of his time away from his business here at the bedside of his sick wife, at her father's in Parksville, Boyle county.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Cook receive friends Thursday evening, August 6th, at 8:30 o'clock, read the cards which were issued Wednesday for a party given in honor of Miss Annie Dishman at the hospitable home of Judge A. K. Cook.

—Hon. S. H. Kash came in yesterday morning from Manchester, Clay county, and informs us that Clay county gives a majority for the constitution of 167. The pro-constitutionalists had been claiming the county by about 800 to 1,000.

—A number of persons here are exercising themselves over the question of who is the correspondent of the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times from this place, and seem to think they should know just who he is and just exactly what he is going to write, forgetting the fact that such great papers as the two above mentioned, have representatives all over the land who know what news is and have to tell it, and don't have to go to a few "cranky" individuals for their consent before reporting the same.

—Misses Annie and Sue Dishman and Roberta Chinn, who have been visiting friends at "Ely Dale" and Flat Lick, returned Tuesday night. Miss Gertrude Paden, a charming young lady from Georgetown, who has been visiting her father at the same place, accompanied them home. Hon. John H. Wilson, Judge Tinsley and C. F. Davidson left for Louisville Tuesday night to spend a day or two. T. M. Sampson, of this place, visited Middlesboro Tuesday night. F. D. Sampson has gone to Annapolis, Md., to take a preparatory course before entering for examination for an appointment as a naval cadet.

FIRST KISS FROM HER LOVER.—This, an assured, is a true story, says a writer in the Detroit Free Press. The gentleman himself told it to me, and the lady, now his wife, sat beside him and admitted it to be true. He had waited on her for several weeks, when one evening he resolved to kiss her, and told her so.

"You shall do nothing of the kind," she said with a good deal of asperity.

But he was not to be frightened out of it. He reached for her, but she drew away and indignantly declared that if he undertook any such liberties she would scream. He didn't believe she would, so he grabbed her up and gave her a good, rousing smack.

Sure enough, she screamed like a steam calliope, and frightened the young man well-nigh out of his senses, for he heard the family rushing toward the parlor. The young lady's mother was the first to enter and the father came close behind.

"What's the matter?" asked the mother.

The young man stood by the piano, wishing the roof would fall in and bury everybody. The young lady had jumped upon the sofa.

"I saw a mouse," she said.

The parents went back, and the young man kissed her until she couldn't have told a mouse from a mountain.

—There is a post at the corner of the public square in Fairmont, Mo., which gets a bolt of lightning from nearly every thunder storm that comes along. Three men, five horses and 20 or 30 sheep have been electrocuted at the spot.

—E. P. Owsley bought of West End parties 100 hogs weighing 125 pounds at 34 cents. He has paid as high as 4 cents within the last week.

—Ed Hopper won the Twin City handicap at St. Paul on a heavy track in 1:45, a mile and 70 yards. This is within half a second of the record.

—Best shippers are worth 54 in Cincinnati, and butchers from 3 to 44; choice butcher hogs bring 54 to 5.60; sheep are in demand at 3 to 5, and lambs dull at 34 to 6.

—There were not enough potatoes left over last year for this year's planting, and the farmers had to buy them from Canada, under the McKinley tariff of 25 cents a bushel.

—The Georgetown Times reports shipments of 155 head of 1,550 to 1,600-pound cattle at 54 to 5.40. They were purchased by Morris of Chicago for the European market.

—Woodcock & Owens shipped to Cincinnati Saturday 300 fat ewes for which they paid 34. Mrs. M. P. Sallee sold to D. N. Prewitt 30 fat hogs, averaging 225 pounds, to be delivered between August 20 and September 1 at 5c per pound.—Advocate.

—Bronaugh & Middleton bought of East End parties, viz: Of Isaac Herrin 1 yoke oxen for $62; of A. H. Bastin 3 butcher cattle, 24; of Hiatt Stigall 4 same at 2.10; of M. A. Singleton 1 steer, 1,270 pounds, at 3c; of I. Herrin 2 1,000 pound heifers at 24; of Perkins & Robinson one lot fat cows at 2 to 24, and A. H. Harber 4 head butcher cattle at 2 to 24 cents.

—Commissioner of Agriculture Wilson gives the following averages of crops in Kentucky up to date: Corn, acreage 100, condition 103; wheat, acreage 105, quality compared with last year, 110; tobacco, acreage 90, condition and stand 100; hemp, condition, 70; peaches, compared with last year, 162; apples, compared with last year, 149; clover, condition 92; timothy, condition 85; pastures, condition 88; garden products 104; Irish potatoes 122; sweet potatoes 110; sorghum 100.

The much-talked-of 2:22 trot at Danville Wednesday was won by the favorite, Bonnie Wilmore. Walter Herr got the first two heats and trotted the second in 2:34—the quickest time by 24 seconds ever made over the Danville track. Bonnie Wilmore was largely favorite and sold 3 to 1 against the field in private pools, notwithstanding Walter Herr and Nellie W. each had lower records, and Lizzie Mac, the other contestant, was both speedy and frequently successful. After losing two heats the Harrodsburg boys backed the favorite with even money and got a good deal of it. The purse was $400 and Nellie W.'s failure to get second money of it was a disappointment to many. In the 2:32 trot Wood Wilkes won, after trotting a dead heat with Sallie C. and losing one from her and another from Valentine. Blondette got first money in the 2-year-old race in two straight heats. An unusually large crowd was in attendance.

—Ex-Congressman Kelley, of Kansas, has deserted the republicans and joined the Peffer-Simpson party.

—The sugar trust and Claus Spreckles are into a bitter fight, and the result is that granulated sugar has been forced down to less than 4 cents a pound, the lowest price on record. Let 'em fight.

—It is rumored at Washington that the president will accept the resignation of Secretary Noble, in order to appease Chauncey I. Filley, the machine boss of Missouri, who has waited for the scalp of Noble.

—If Jerry Rusk keeps up this weather three-fourths of the summer resort hotels will burn down shortly after the expiration of the present season. If any body thinks this paragraph is libelous, let him prove it.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

—Obediah Cary and Price Marrison fell out at a party at William Hungate's, in Mercer, and agreed to settle it with their fists after the festivities. They went off as agreed, but Cary got a rock and slipping up behind Marrison crushed his skull. He then took to his heels.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Four-year-old Earl Ward, son of Dick Ward, cut a finger off in the running gear of S. Will Hackney's new bicycle Friday.

—R. C. Ford is getting along well and will recover unless a relapse occurs. W. C. Pitman and son, John, arrived from Manchester Wednesday. John Corly and W. C. Kelley have been fooling around town for a few days. Scott Farris is up from Crah Orchard trying to learn some points in the "boss" business from R. M. Jackson. Many other persons too numerous to mention have got loose from me this week.

—I know you think I ought have sent you some earlier report about the election, but really I didn't have the heart to do it. The republicans carry the county by about 450 majority, London precinct going for the State ticket by 150, a majority larger than for 10 years for any full ticket, the usual vote being not over 125. The people's ticket got 23 votes in London precinct alone, and the prohibition ticket received 5 votes. Joplin's majority for representative will be about 300 in Laurel, notwithstanding the big vote Farmers Alliance Republican Fagan was supposed to receive. The constitution will have a majority of 700, official count to-morrow, and if over in time will let you know.

—A shooting scrape, an unusual thing, occurred on our streets Tuesday between Bob Doughty on one side and Andy Edwards and his step-son, John Marlow, on the other. Doughty is chairman of the board of trustees in the district in which Edwards lived and the difficulty arose over a charge that Edwards' children were mixed blooded, the charge being brought by other parties and it having been referred to the county school superintendent by Doughty. Ten shots were fired by 32 revolvers, one shot striking Doughty in the stomach and penetrating the skin. Edwards was grazed on the arm by one shot from Doughty's pistol, while Marlow had one shot in foot-rot. Marlow and Doughty were the only ones having pistols. A large crowd was in town awaiting news from the election and the row created quite a sensation.

—Mr. Joe Young and bride, nee Miss Belle Borsing, arrived Wednesday evening, after an elopement last Friday evening. Miss Belle left Friday and her absence created quite a sensation, her people using every effort to find and bring her home. She was accompanied by Miss Mattie Lovelace, who also returned with the happy couple. Through many misunderstandings the two did not meet until Sunday afternoon, when they took hog paths to Jellico. They were married just over the line from Lot, Whitley county, in Tennessee, in a corn-field under an apple tree. Mrs. Young is one of our prettiest, brightest and most estimable young ladies, while Joe Young is well-known and has a unanimous host of admiring friends all over Laurel, being an enterprising and energetic young man with few if any enemies. Mrs. Young is just 16 years and one week of age.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Lancaster sent over a large crowd to the Danville fair each day.

—The Hop Club gave a very enjoyable German at the Miller Hotel last night.

—Mr. George W. Bettis has resigned as railroad agent at this place. Mr. J. W. Carr, of Richmond, has accepted the agency and took possession the first of the week.

—Today, Friday, is the last day for filing suits for the August term of the Garrard Circuit Court. The docket is larger than usual and court will probably last the full length of the term.

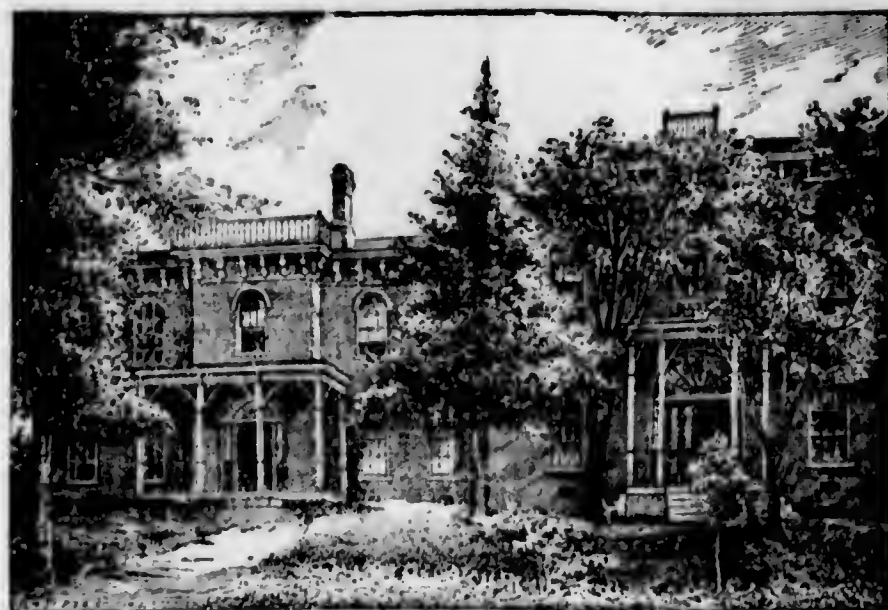

—The public school opened Monday with Judge M. D. Hughes as principal and Miss Scott Petty as assistant. About 50 pupils are enrolled, but the number will doubtless reach 75 by next week.

—James H. Brown is very sick at his home on Danville avenue. Mrs. S. M. Peacock and children have returned to their home in Hustonville. Sam Joseph, of Cincinnati, was here this week. Mrs. H. A. B. Marksberry and daughter Mrs. A. H. Rice have returned from a visit to relatives in Perryville. Col. J. K. Faulkner has been quite ill for several days at Mr. Geo. Denny's. We are glad to say that he has greatly improved.

—James Gore, aged 70, died at the Clemens House, in this city, Friday evening, of old age and a complication of diseases.—Advocate.

—The wife of Col. S. A. Newell died at Somerset Saturday. She was a sister of Col. W. O. Bradley and like him had many friends all over the State, who will regret to hear of her death.

—Prof. Shenshenjian, the Armenian teacher of languages in the Kentucky University and at Hamilton Female College, Lexington, died last week of consumption, and was buried there. He was a graduate of the Bible College, and had been there five years. He was born on the shores of the Black Sea, and was preparing to return to his native land as a missionary of the Christian church when disease struck him down.

While enjoying the fine frolic at the Danville Fair, Wednesday, Mr. J. E. Bruce lost a fine golf watch. He does not believe that it was the work of a pick-pocket, although it looks very much like it to a man up a tree.
J. W. Elsworth, a young and good looking man, is in jail in default of $500 bond for stealing a watch and pistol from a railroad man at Rowland. He was arrested at Junction City, and was held for further trial by Judge Barnett. Some boarding house checks and a nickel were all he had in his pockets when searched for jail.

While driving Farris & Hardin's delivery wagon yesterday, John Engelman, Jr., was jarred out of his seat by a rut and his eye-rid catching on a hook on the side of the top, it was torn down his cheek, producing a very painful wound. Fortunately the eye was not hurt. Dr. Reid stitched it up and the patient will have to remain in a dark room for some time.

A dispatch from Jackson, Miss., says that Jackson Dick, of Somerset, Ky., had arrested Thomas B. Coggins on a requisition from Governor Blackburn. He is charged with seducing the old man's daughter, Uzie, who is now en route. The old man had blood on his eye and if Coggins doesn't quiet the matter by marrying his victim, he will be persecuted to the bitter end.

The L. & N. can nearly always be counted on to do the proper thing. Prof. Hubbard spoke to Asst. Supt. Frank Harris about the cost of some gravel to fix the walks at the college, when he proposed to bring him three car-loads from the C. & O. branch, gravel and freight free. This is equal to a clear gift of $100 and the friends and patrons of the school appreciate the kind offer.

For the first time in its history the full returns from every precinct in the county were heard in Stanford by 9 o'clock election night and printed before 10. The way we managed it was this: Waynesburg is 15 miles from here and four miles from a telegraph office. Immediately after the close of the polls at 7, Mr. W. R. Cross at our request put a man on a horse and sent the result to Kingsville, from which place Mr. James Roy also sent us the returns from there. We got Sam W. Menefee to bring the Hestonville vote, which place is 10 miles from Stanford, and stop by Turnersville, five miles out, for its vote. Hick Newland brought the vote of Crab Orchard, 10 miles, and Walnut Flat, 5 miles. We sent a man to Highland, 10 miles, on horse back, and another to Hubbs, 7 miles, and they were all in by 9 o'clock. Only Kingsville and Crab Orchard can be reached by telegraph, the other precincts being from three to five miles distant from such offices. This way of getting news comes high, but the Interior Journal can always be relied on to give the latest from every important event.

More of a Kiss.—In addition to the letter to us from President Smith, relative to the removal of the division point from Rowland, General Manager J. G. Metcalfe writes as follows to Mayor H. W. Vandever:
"I am in receipt of your favor of the 1st inst., and am very glad indeed to know of the interest you take in the company's affairs in and about your city, and desire to thank you for your very kind letter. There were some improvements that we desired to make at Rowland, that have been postponed on account of the large amount of money that was asked for certain property, which at that time we thought we needed. There have also been some negotiations as to a further water supply for the company at Rowland. That was also deferred until such time as we thought the matter could be more readily handled. When these matters are called to my attention again I will remember your letter and see what can be done to further the interests of your citizens."

If Mr. Metcalfe will specify what is needed to secure a permanent location of the shops and division point at Rowland, we will guarantee that our citizens will secure it. They know the importance of their remaining there and are ready and willing to put up anything reasonable to settle the matter.

—Mr. M. D. Elmore has on exhibition a stalk of corn 15 feet tall and 9 feet to the ear. He thinks this breaks the record.

CENTRAL UNIVERSITY will open Sep. 9. It is growing all the time in popularity and the next session promises to be even more successful than last, when there were 491 students. Send to Dr. Blanton, Richmond, for a catalogue.

The L. & N. will run a special train, leaving Crab Orchard at 7 A. M., August 18 to 21 to Lebanon on account of the Marion County Trotting Association. This train will stop at all stations for passengers. Tickets one fare for the round-trip. Returning train will leave Lebanon each day after exhibition is over. W. W. PENS, T. P. A.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.
—Work has been resumed at the quarry with Hugh Miller as ballast inspector and telegraph operator.
—Wash Freeman, charged with the murder of Thomas Osborn, county attorney at Tazewell, Tennessee, two years since, was captured in this county yesterday morning, and is held here for instructions from the above place.

—A dispatch from Jellico states that John Mullins, a son of Champ Mullins, of Livingston, was shot at the former place and dangerously wounded by a negro. The trouble arose in some way over the election. Mullins received a number of buckshot in the breast, arms and shoulders. The negro was arrested and there was strong talk of mobbing him. No further particulars.

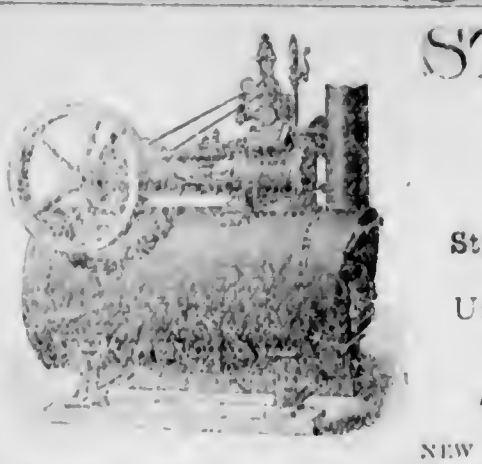

—Messrs. R. C. Warren, of your place, and M. F. Brinkley and Jap. Hufaker were here Wednesday. Miss Blanche Goodall, a Nashville beauty, is visiting relatives here. Mr. Ed Reppert, who has been in the car accountant's office of the C. S. at Cincinnati has been promoted to the position of stenographer in the office of superintendent at Birmingham. Mr. Robert White and father were up from Crab Orchard Friday. Mr. R. L. Joplin has gone on a surveying expedition to Harlan county.

—Mr. W. B. Dillion was here Wednesday and described his experience with a hornet. One of these industrious insects invaded his bedroom the other morning and took up quarters with Mr. D., but proved too warm a bedfellow for that gentleman. After leaping from the bed, executing a war dance, and turning over wash stands, chairs, etc., his hornetship was slain, and Mr. D. repaired damages by application of tobacco juice.

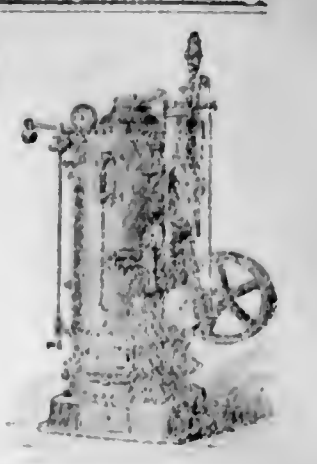

—The election at this place was the quietest that has occurred here for years, not a disturbance of any kind took place during the day. The new constitution carried by a majority of 146 in this precinct, and J. S. Joplin, republican candidate for legislature, received a majority of 44, a falling off of 50. The prohibition ticket received two votes, the people's party wasn't in it. The county gives about 90 majority for the new constitution, and the republican candidate for legislature gets only a slightly larger one. In the three cornered fight for the legislature Fagan's supporters wavered considerably under the seductive tongues of the regular republican leaders, who vigorously circulated the report that Fagan, the independent republican candidate, had entered into a combination with the democrats to defeat their candidate. T. J. Ballard, independent democrat, carried Crooked Creek, a republican stronghold, by 80, a precinct which the republicans usually carry by from 90 to 100.

—The only trouble in the county on election day was at Crooked Creek precinct where John D. Mullins met his death at the hands of Bill Damerel. It appears that Damerel was drunk and had been noisy around the polls and was displaying his money. Young Mullins, the sheriff of the election, spoke to Damerel and requested him to settle an old debt due Mullins, whereupon Damerel flew into a passion and replied that he would whip on the amount with Mullins. Later when Damerel was flourishing a pistol and making a noise around the polls, Mullins asked him to be quiet. Damerel replied that he would "burn it off" in his face. Damerel was persuaded to leave, but before starting away it is said he remarked that he would kill some one before he left the place. He with Jones Durham went to where their horses were hitched and after mounting both began firing their pistols. After the fifth shot young Mullins, who was sitting inside the house where the voting was going on, leaning his head over on one hand was seen to fall from his chair a corpse. Damerel and Durham put spurs to their horses and fled. Several parties pursued them, but others on foot out across a mountain and headed them off and captured them, bringing them on here to jail that night. Mullins was shot in the center of the nose, the ball passing to the back of the neck and ranged downward, producing instant death. Witnesses say that Durham pointed his pistol downward when he was shooting, and that Damerel took deliberate aim at his victim. Damerel says that he don't know that he shot Mullins, but that if he did it was accidental. The examining trial is set for Friday, when it is thought Durham will be released. Considerable feeling exists in the whole eastern portion of the county over the tragic death of young Mullins, as he was a very popular man and highly esteemed by everyone and a useful citizen. Damerel is not a native of the county but is from East Tennessee, and has been here but a few years.

WHY SHOULD LADIES USE IT?
Because it is the best; it is a beautiful jet black; it contains no acids; it contains no alcohol nor anything else that will burn the leather and make it crack; it is harmless to leather; it benefits the leather; it contains oil; it softens the leather; it will not rub off the shoes and soil ladies' skirts; it is economical, for it will make shoes on which it is regularly applied wear two or three times longer than when ordinary acid dressings are used.
